Konaway Nika Tillicum, which means "All My Relations" in Chinook Trade Jargon, is an eight-day academic program exploring a broad range of classes, lectures, cultural experiences, and recreational activities for Native American students.

Students accepted into the program join us on the Southern Oregon University (SOU) campus in Ashland, Oregon to be challenged by creative and imaginative instructors and peers. Students spend time with tribal elders and leaders during classes, activities and outdoor presentations.

Students stay in the SOU dorms and eat at The Hawk dining hall and experience life on a University campus.
